

The practice Of Agile internal Auditing In Your Mission

Institute of
Internal Auditors
Belgium

Gauthier Brun

Official IIA trainer

TRAINING OBJECTIVES

The training objectives is to understand the main principle of Agile Auditing such as:

- ✓ Key concepts of Agile Auditing (Key similarities and differences from Agile development)
- ✓ How and Why Agile applies to the internal audit engagement process
- ✓ How to perform Agile Auditing and start a pilot mission
- ✓ The parallel between the traditional process of conducting an internal audit engagement(according to IPPF) and the agile engagement process
- ✓ The deliverables of the Agile audit engagement:
 - the engagement outline
 - the Kanban
 - the sprint results (point of view)
 - the report
- ✓ The audit team's roles and responsibilities in the Agile environment How to implement changes progressively
 - pilot phase
 - agile champions
 - Feedback

AGENDA

- I. Why is Agile becoming more and more important for Internal Audit
- II. What Agile auditing means for Internal Audit
- III. The Agile Auditing process
 - A. Beginning of the mission
 - B. Middle of the mission
 - C. End of the mission
- IV. How easy it is to maintain the compliance with the IIA Standards
- V. Key advantages and attention points for Agile Auditing
- VI. Q&A

